PET SITTING NZ PET CARE COMMITMENT CODE CONDENSED CODE OF CONDUCT

Ethical and Professional Requirements:

1. Prohibition on the Use of Force, Fear, or Intimidation: Members must never use force, threats, or any form of violence towards any person or animal.
2. Competence and Expertise: Members must comply with all relevant legislation and regulatory welfare requirements. Medical, nutritional, or health advice is only given if qualified to do so and within professional boundaries.
3. Non-Discrimination: Pet Sitting NZ serves all pet owners without discrimination based on race, age, gender, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, disability, religion, political belief, nation of origin, or sexual orientation.
4. Socially Responsible Pet Ownership: Members promote responsible pet ownership, respecting public and communal property and ensuring pets do not cause damage or nuisance.
5. Health and Wellbeing: Members prioritise their personal health and safety when caring for pets, report observed injuries or medical issues promptly, and respect owner instructions regarding pet health decisions.
6. Property: Members respect and safeguard all property entrusted to them, including Pet Sitting NZ equipment and owners' belongings.
7. Privacy and Confidentiality: Confidential information is protected and shared only with consent, adhering to privacy laws and respecting client confidentiality.
8. Ownership: Members respect owners' rights and decisions regarding their pets' care and management, ensuring transparency and informed consent. Provide honest information about services and care provided.
9. Personal Presentation and Conduct: Members present a professional image, maintaining neatness and adhering to dress codes as required.
10. Health and Wellbeing: Members are responsible for their own health and safety and that of pets under their care. They must report any observed injuries or health issues promptly and encourage owners to seek professional veterinary advice.
11. Social Media: Members maintain professionalism on social media, refraining from posting confidential information or opinions that could harm Pet Sitting NZ's reputation.
12. Prohibited Techniques & Training Tools: The use of any device or technique that employs force, fear, or intimidation is strictly prohibited, including: Electronic stimulation collars, Prong collars, Alpha rolls or forced submission techniques. Other forms of aversive training methods.
13. Legal Frameworks: Animal Welfare Act 1999: Sets standards for animal care and protection, emphasising animals' welfare and preventing mistreatment. Dog Control Act 1996: Outlines obligations for dog owners regarding registration, control, care, and public behaviour. Local Council Regulations: Pet Sitting NZ members must adhere to local council regulations and governing policies pertaining to pet care or dog walking within their service area.
